- Make Thanksgiving crafts. There are endless possibilities when it comes to Thanksgiving crafts. Kids can make turkeys out of construction paper, feathers, and glue; create pilgrim hats out of black and white paper; or design festive placemats with autumn leaves and glitter.
- Play Thanksgiving games. There are also a variety of Thanksgiving-themed games that kids can play. These games can be found online or in activity books, and they're a great way to keep kids entertained while they're waiting for dinner.

- Go for a walk or hike. If the weather is nice, take the kids for a walk or hike in the woods. This is a great way to get some fresh air and exercise, and it's also a fun way to explore the natural world.
- Visit a local museum or historical site. Many museums and historical sites offer special Thanksgiving-themed activities for kids. These activities can be a great way to learn about the history of Thanksgiving and the traditions that we celebrate today.
- Volunteer at a local soup kitchen or food bank. Thanksgiving is a time for giving back to the community. Take the kids to a local soup kitchen or food bank and help them to serve food to those in need. This is a great way to teach kids the importance of compassion and service.

These are just a few ideas for fun things to do on Thanksgiving for kids. With a little planning, you can make this Thanksgiving a memorable one for the whole family.

Additional Tips for Keeping Kids Entertained on Thanksgiving

* Set up a special activity area for the kids. This could be a room in the house or a corner of the backyard. Stock the area with plenty of toys, games, and books to keep the kids occupied. * Provide snacks and drinks for the kids. This will help to keep them from getting hungry and thirsty while they're playing. * Encourage the kids to help out with the Thanksgiving preparations. This could involve setting the table, helping to make the food, or decorating the house. * Take breaks from the festivities to spend time with the kids. Thanksgiving is a time for family, so make sure to take some time to relax and enjoy each other's company.

By following these tips, you can make Thanksgiving a fun and memorable experience for the whole family.
